RESOLUTION

Commending the 4 American public servants who died in Benghazi, Libya, including Ambassador J. Christopher Stevens, for their tireless efforts on behalf of the American people and condemning the violent attack on the United States consulate in Benghazi.

Whereas on September 11, 2012, 4 American public servants, including United States Ambassador to Libya, John Christopher Stevens, and Sean Smith, were killed in a reprehensible and vicious attack on the United States consulate in Benghazi, Libya;

Whereas Ambassador Stevens—

- (1) was a courageous and exemplary representative of the United States;
- (2) had spent 21 years in the Foreign Service;
- (3) was deeply passionate about representing the United States through his diplomatic service; and
- (4) was an ardent friend of the Libyan people;

Whereas Ambassador Stevens served as Special Envoy to the Libyan Transitional National Council in Benghazi during the 2011 Libyan revolution;

Whereas Ambassador Stevens was a dear friend of the Senate, having served on the staff of the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate in 2006 and 2007 as a distinguished Pearson Fellow;

Whereas Foreign Service Information Management Officer Sean Smith—

- (1) was a husband and a father of 2 children;
 - (2) joined the Department of State 10 years ago;
- and

(3) had served in the Foreign Service, before arriving in Benghazi, in Baghdad, Pretoria, Montreal, and The Hague;

Whereas the 2 other individuals from Ambassador Stevens' team who perished in the attack made great sacrifices and showed bravery in taking on a difficult post in Libya;

Whereas the violence in Benghazi coincided with an attack on the United States Embassy in Cairo, Egypt, which was also swarmed by an angry mob of protesters on September 11, 2012;

Whereas on a daily basis, United States diplomats, military personnel, and other public servants risk their lives to serve the American people; and

Whereas throughout this Nation's history, thousands of Americans have sacrificed their lives for the ideals of freedom, democracy, and partnership with nations and people around the globe.

Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate—

2 (1) recognizes the dedicated service and deep
3 commitment of the 4 American public servants, in-
4 cluding Ambassador John Christopher Stevens and
5 Sean Smith, in assisting the Libyan people as they
6 navigate the complex currents of democratic transi-
7 tion marked in this case by profound instability;

8 (2) praises Ambassador Stevens, who rep-
9 resented the highest tradition of American public
10 service, for his extraordinary record of dedication to

1 the United States' interests in some of the most dif-
2 ficult and dangerous posts around the globe;

3 (3) sends its deepest condolences to the families
4 of those American public servants killed in
5 Benghazi;

6 (4) commends the bravery of Foreign Service
7 Officers, United States Armed Forces, and public
8 servants serving in harm's way around the globe and
9 recognizes the deep sacrifices made by their families;
10 and

11 (5) condemns, in the strongest possible terms,
12 the despicable attacks on American diplomats and
13 public servants in Benghazi and calls for the per-
14 petrators of such attacks to be brought to justice.
